Along the way, they explore numbers, learning, and the joy of discovery. The poems are perfect for reading aloud to students, and they're sure to get everyone excited about this special day.

Here's a sneak peek at some of the poems in the book:

The 100th Day of School

One hundred days of learning, One hundred days of fun, One hundred days of growing, And so much more to come.

We've counted every single day, And now we're here at last, The 100th day of school, A day to celebrate.

What We've Learned

We've learned about numbers, And how to read and write, We've learned about science, And the world outside.

We've learned about history, And the people who came before, We've learned about art, And how to express ourselves.

The Joy of Discovery

The 100th day of school is a time to celebrate, All the things we've learned, And all the things we've grown.

It's a time to look back on the past, And to look forward to the future, A time to celebrate the joy of discovery.

100th Day of School Holidays In Rhythm And Rhyme is a delightful way to commemorate this special day. The poems are sure to get everyone excited about the 100th day of school, and they're a great way to celebrate the progress students have made. Free Download your copy today!
